Make the best choice

There are many ways to find a doctor with DocFind. Search by:

- Name
- City, state, zip
- Specialty
- Hospital affiliation
- Gender

You can get key information about a doctor:

- Plans accepted
- Office locations
- Maps and driving directions
- Medical schools attended
- Board certification
- Languages spoken

You can even see which facilities specialize in:

- Transplants
- Children's heart surgery
- Bariatric procedures
- Orthopedic procedures

They're included in the Institutes of Excellence™/Institutes of Quality® network.

Look for these extras

DocFind also tells you about many programs your doctor may work with, including:

Aexcel® designation*

This Aetna program for specialists means that a doctor has met certain care and cost standards.

ePrescribing

With this service, doctors can use a computer to write your prescription. They can also check for harmful drug problems and suggest safer treatment options.

National Committee for Quality Assurance (NCQA) recognition

This program helps you find doctors who meet NCQA standards of care. NCQA is a non-profit group that works to improve health care quality.

We update DocFind six times a week so you have the latest on participating doctors and facilities.

*Aexcel is not available with HMO plans.
